

Magrill Elementary
Home of the Mustangs

Mustang Tales

Volume 8, Issue 1
August/September 2009

Linda Griffin, Librarian
Debra Witchet, Assistant

Celebrate Grandparents Day With books and activities

Sept 15—Oct 15 is
Hispanic Heritage Month

September Events:

- ◆ Library Card Signup Month
- ◆ National Very Important Parents Month
- ◆ National Preparedness Month
- ◆ Book Fair in LMC Sept. 18—Sept. 25
- ◆ Open House Sept. 22
- ◆ National Grandparents Day September 14
- ◆ Constitution Day—September 17

Grandparents Day is celebrated the first Sunday in September after Labor day. The day was founded by Marian McQuade to honor the elderly and encourage grandchildren to inherit the wisdom and heritage of the grandparents. President Jimmy Carter made it a national holiday in 1978. Here are some great links:

<http://www.grandparents-day.com/>

<http://www.apples4theteacher.com/holidays/grandparents-day/index.html>

During National Hispanic Heritage Month, we celebrate the contributions of Hispanic Americans and the role they have played in the history of our nation. Books will be available on the reserve cart to check out for classroom use. Also check United Streaming and these internet resources:

www.factmonster.com

www.teacher.scholastic.com/hispanic/activities

New ELA TEKS and the Library

- * Need a classroom library for independent reading? You can check out books for your classroom library and rotate them as needed.
- * For research assistance, we can pull books on a subject and have them for use in your classroom.
- * For listening stations, the library has a growing collection of audio books.

Libraries Impact Student Achievement